4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Dear Brothers and Sisters,

On this Fourth Sunday of Ordinary Time, the Gospel presents the first great discourse that the Lord addresses to the people on the gentle hills encircling the Sea of Galilee. "Seeing the crowds," St Matthew writes, "he went up on the mountain, and when he sat down his disciples came to him. And he opened his mouth and taught them" (Mt 5:1-2).

Jesus, the new Moses, "takes his seat on the cathedra of the mountain" (Jesus of Nazareth, Doubleday, New York 2007, p. 65) and proclaims "blessed" the poor in spirit, those who mourn, the merciful, those who hunger for righteousness, the pure in heart, the persecuted (cf. Mt 5:3-10). It is not a new ideology, but a teaching that comes from on high and touches the human condition, the condition that the Lord, in becoming flesh, wished to assume in order to save it.

Therefore "the Sermon on the Mount is addressed to the entire world, the entire present and future, and yet it demands discipleship and can be understood and lived out only by following Jesus and accompanying him on his journey" (Jesus of Nazareth, p. 69).

The Beatitudes are a new programme of life, to free oneself from the false values of the world and to open oneself to the true goods, present and future. Indeed, when God comforts, he satisfies the hunger for righteousness, he wipes away the tears of those who mourn, which means that, as well as compensating each one in a practical way, he opens the Kingdom of Heaven. "The Beatitudes are the transposition of the Cross and Resurrection into discipleship" (ibid., p. 74). They mirror the life of the Son of God who let himself even be persecuted and despised until he was condemned to death so that salvation might be given to men and women.

An ancient hermit says: "The Beatitudes are gifts of God and we must say a great 'thank you' to him for them and for the rewards that derive from them, namely the Kingdom of God in the century to come and consolation here; the fullness of every good and mercy on God's part ... once we have become images of Christ on earth" (Peter of Damascus, In Filocalia, Vol. 3, Turin 1985, p. 79).

The Gospel of the Beatitudes is commented on with the actual history of the Church, the history of Christian holiness, because, as St Paul writes, "God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong, God chose what is low and despised in the world, even things that are not, to bring to nothing things that are" (1 Cor 1:27-28).

For this reason the Church has no fear of poverty, contempt or persecution in a society which is often attracted by material well-being and worldly power. St Augustine reminds us that "it serves nothing to suffer these evils, but rather to bear them in the Name of Jesus, not only with a serene soul but also with joy" (cf. De sermone Domini in monte, I, 5,13: ccl 35, 13).

Dear brothers and sisters, let us invoke the Virgin Mary, the Blessed par excellence, asking her for the strength to seek the Lord (cf. Zeph 2:3) and to follow him always, with joy, on the path of the Beatitudes."

— Pope Benedict XVI

FOOD PANTRY DONATIONS NEEDED

The families that we feed from our food pantry have increased over the years. We currently cannot accept food donations but monetary donations are greatly appreciated. Please make checks payable to St. Joseph Catholic Church with Food Pantry in the memo section of the check. Or you can give using Online Giving or Text to Give options by choosing Outreach—Food Pantry in the Fund drop down menu. For more information you can contact Vicky McCann at parish.outreachministry@gmail.com.

PARISH JOB OPENING

Interested in joining the parish staff? We are currently seeking a Liturgy Coordinator/Pastoral Assistant to help support the liturgical ministries of our parish. Scan the QR code to learn more and apply.

SCAM ALERT—BE AWARE

We've learned that scammers are impersonating staff from St. Joseph Catholic Church using fake emails, phone calls, and text messages. Here's how to stay safe:

- Official emails will always come from addresses ending in @stjosephorlando.org.
  - If you get an email from a Gmail, Hotmail, Yahoo, or any other non-official domain claiming to be from us — do not reply. Mark it as spam and delete it.
  - When in doubt, call the parish office directly using the number listed on our official website.
- Your safety is our priority.
Thank you for staying alert and helping protect our community.
